Rules, Regulations, and Consent.

- The BioSAM computer lab and its equipment are to be used for academic purposes. Commercial use of the lab's computer systems is prohibited.
- You may not give out the door codes to unauthorized people.
- You may not bring food or drink into the BioSAM computer lab.
- If an account has been assigned to you personally, you are solely responsible for safeguarding its access, including choosing a safe password. You are also responsible for any activity which is associated with your account. You may not share your personal account with any other user.
- You may not use this equipment to transmit abusive, anonymous, unsolicited, obscene or fraudulent messages.
- You may not install software on any machine. All software installs are done by the lab's administrator and staff. You should only save work in your assigned home directory, or onto removable media.
- You may not copy or distribute software without permission.
- If a class or meeting is being held in the BioSAM lab, and you are asked to leave, you must comply with the instructor's or staff's request. You will be able to work remotely.

I have read the above Rules and Regulations and I agree to abide by them. I understand that if I do not abide by them, my account will be suspended and my access to the BioSAM lab will thenceforth be denied.
